

START HERE

This page is from a book made for an emperor in India. Draw a buddy who might be great one day. Write his or her name, from right to left, like in Arabic!

Do you have a buddy who might make history? Draw her wearing First Lady Michelle Obama's inaugural gown and write her name below.

Does someone always stick up for you the way Cesar Chavez did for farm workers? Draw him or her wearing Chavez's jacket and write his or her name below.

Do you have a buddy who likes to travel? Draw the outfit that he or she might wear with this ox mask made by a Bijogo artist from Guinea Bissau, West Africa, and write his or her name below.

START HERE

Here is a very old painting of children playing jump rope in China. Write the name of a buddy who plays with you on the right, going from top to bottom the way Chinese characters are written.

INSTRUCTIONS: Fold carefully and make sharp creases by following these directions.

1. Fold sheet in half horizontally along the green dotted line.
2. Open flat.
3. Fold sheet in half vertically along red dotted line.
4. Fold the top right edge back along the blue line to the red line.
5. Flip and do the same fold along the blue line on the other side.
6. Turn the paper so the red line is down. Cut, or tear carefully from the folded side up along green line. Stop at the blue line. Do NOT cut the two flaps.
7. Open. You'll see a diamond shape in the middle.
8. Fold down on the green line like before.
9. Hold left and right ends and push toward middle.
10. Fold your book closed with the cover on top.

LUNCH with BUDDIES AROUND THE WORLD

You can transform this sheet of paper into a book! Just follow the directions on the left.

Let art and clothing from all over the world inspire you as you draw pictures and play with the names of your lunch buddies in this little book of objects from the Smithsonian collections.

SmithsonianEducation.org

Smithsonian Institution

Do you have a buddy who will be a famous athlete like Apolo Ohno, the most decorated American Winter Olympic athlete of all time? Draw your buddy in Ohno's skates and write his or her name below.

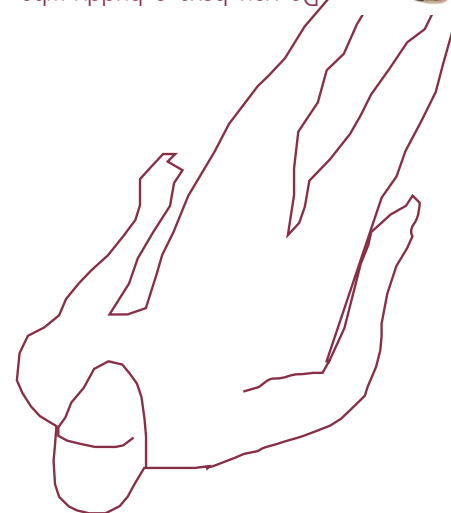

IMAGE CREDITS

Skates

Olympic Skates
2002
Gift of Apolo Anton Ohno

Painting

Landscape: children playing with a skipping-rope
China
1644-1911
Qing dynasty
Album leaf; ink and color on paper
H: 27.3 W: 31.9 cm
Gift of Charles Lang Freer F1911.167b

Jacket

Jacket owned by Cesar Chavez
1980s-90s

Book page

Jahangir
17th century,
Mughal dynasty
Color and gold on paper
H: 4.4 W: 3.9 cm
India
Gift of Charles Lang Freer F1907.187

Dress

Michelle Obama wore this one-shouldered white-silk chiffon gown embellished with organza flowers with Swarovski crystal centers to the 2009 inaugural balls. It was designed by Jason Wu.

Mask (dugn'be)

Mask (dugn'be)
Bijogo peoples
Guinea-Bissau
Late 19th-mid 20th century
Wood, cow horns, glass, plant fiber, paint
H x W x D: 27 x 50 x 30 cm (10 5/8 x 19 11/16 x 11 13/16 in.)
Gift of Walt Disney World Co., a subsidiary of The Walt Disney Company
2005-6-53
Photograph by Franko Khoury
National Museum of African Art
Smithsonian Institution